

GEORGIA Antique TRAIL.com

...to find your treasure

Ask any Georgian where to find the most antiques and collectibles in one location, and their recommendation will be the 3,300 booths at Atlanta Expo Centers'

Scott Antique Market

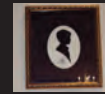

The show is the second weekend of every month
Friday - Saturday 9 am - 6 pm, Sunday 10 am - 4 pm
Scotts is located three miles east of Atlanta Airport,
I-285, Exit 55 at 3650 and 3850 Jonesboro Road.

GEORGIA Antique TRAIL.com

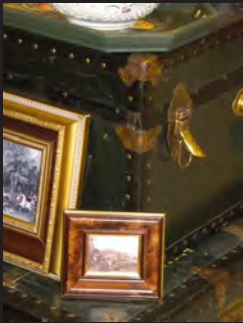

Following GeorgiaAntiqueTrail.com, one will discover upscale antique galleries as well as a mélange of privately owned shops and multivendor malls with a mixture of antiques and vintage collectibles. However, the most delightful treasures one will find are the charming and knowledgeable people on the trail.

Visit GeorgiaAntiqueTrail.com to see additional antique shops that joined since the brochure was printed, detailed maps, each shop's website, hours, photos, phone number, etc.

There are three Queen of Hearts Antiques and Interiors in the Atlanta area: Alpharetta, Buford, and Marietta. Within these stores, there are over 450 dealer-merchants who showcase their merchandise; some of which may be seen above.

There are over 75 other antique malls in Georgia with 100s of dealers. Many items are from southern family estates. Occasionally, items are original pieces from antebellum homes. One will find primitives your grandmother could have owned as well as European imports.

Savannah, Pine Mountain, and Senoia, shown above, have numerous antique shops. Augusta, Chamblee, Ellijay, Statham, and Thomasville each have more than four stores in walking distance. Cartersville, Marietta, Rome, and Ringgold are also filled with treasures! Many of the shops are in historical buildings that were once homes, country stores, banks, post offices, depots, warehouses, and factories.

In Plains, President Carter's home town, there is a great mall and a Historic Inn.
