The Coastal Region boasts many fine antique shops featuring 19th century pieces: Jean's in Stantononsburg, Pepper and Doughtie's Antiques in Roanoke Rapids, Castle Corner, and Antiques of Old Wilmington.

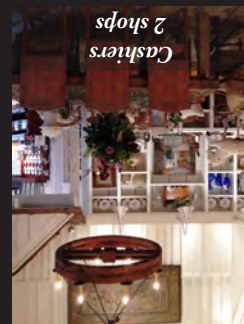

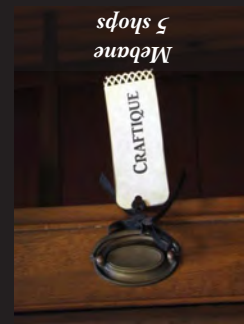

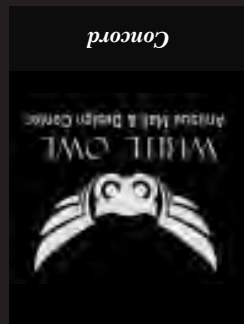

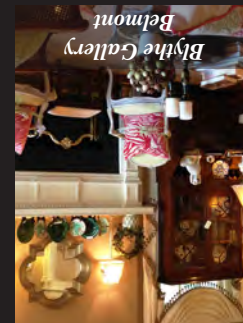

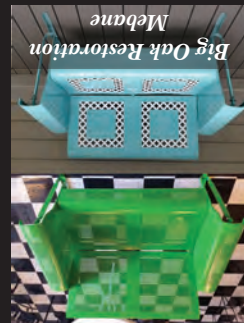

Head toward the beach and stop by Riverside Barn which is filled with mantiques and antiques.

While you are in the area, schedule an entire afternoon for Asheville's historical Antique Tobacco Barn. Then plan to spend several days in the southwestern Mountain Region villages of Cashiers, Henderson, and Waynesville. Follow the trail from Belmont where you will find the large and well organized Catawba River Antique Mall and the fine antiques shop, Blythe Gallery, which is housed in a period home.

treasures one will find along the trail are the charming and antique galleries as well as a melange of privately owned shops and multivendor malls with a mixture of antiques and vintage collectibles. However, the most delightful knowledgeable people.

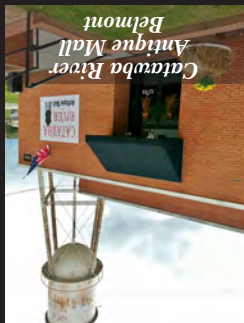

Discover over 30 stores in the Piedmont Region. Take a day or two to shop the two huge malls in Concord: The Depot at Gibson Mill and The White Owl Antiques Mall and Design Center. Take another day to shop the vast Granddaddy's Antique Mall in Burlington. There are four stores in Greensboro, five stores in Mebane, and three stores in Hillsborough. Stay the night near these clusters of stores in the historic Burke Manor Inn in Gibsonville which features a French restaurant.

Start your journey in Barney's stomping grounds in Mount Airy. Travel west visiting shops along the way toward the Blue Ridge Mountain top town of Blowing Rock which is home to two of the respected Windwood Antiques Shops.
